

Thank you for celebrating natural areas through exploration, recreation, workshops and restoration.

FoHVOS appreciates your involvement!

Thank you to our partners and members for making possible the preservation of nearly 7,600 acres in the Hopewell Valley.

Enter the Drawing at your local library
One adult and one child prize will be awarded

Early Birds can bring their completed passports to our table at the Grand Opening of Mount Rose Preserve on June 3, for a free T-shirt.

Preserve Passports can be submitted by September 1, 2017 at Mercer County Library in Pennington and Hopewell Borough and Pennington Borough Libraries.

Check if you are under 18 years of age

Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Questions? Contact us at 609-730-1560 or info@fohvo.org

Celebrating 30 Years of Preservation, Restoration and Education

Complete section 1 by September 1, 2017 to be eligible to win a prize!

1. Visit three of these FoHVOS PRESERVES! Record the date and preserve code (located on the preserve kiosk)

Heritage-1500-1564 Reed Rd., Pennington, NJ 08534, 66 acres of meadow, forested wetlands of red maples & mature forest.

Date of Visit:

Preserve Code:

Jacob's Creek Trail-The trail runs from Pennington-Titusville Road to Pennington-Harbourton Rd., Pennington, NJ 08534.

Date of Visit:

Preserve Code:

Mount Rose-400 acres across the street from 350 Carter Road, Hopewell, NJ 08525. The preserve has a variety of trails.

Date of Visit:

Preserve Code:

Nayfield-Lambertville-Hopewell Rd. Lambertville, NJ 08530. A trail loops through the preserve's meadow and forest habitats.

Date of Visit:

Preserve Code:

Ted Stiles Preserve at Baldpate Mountain-28 Fiddler's Creek Rd., Titusville, NJ, 08560 1132 acres of Hopewell Township's largest contiguous forest. Because of this distinction, it is home to numerous unique and rare plant and animal species and is an Audubon Important Bird Area. A series of trails winds through the preserve.

Date of Visit:

Preserve Code:

Thompson-57 acres, Pennington-Hopewell Rd. Hopewell, NJ 08525. Offers a blend of habitats and land use—forest, meadow, and farmland.

Date of Visit:

Preserve Code:

2. Attend a hike or other activity offered by FoHVOS. What did you do? Write it in the box below.

For a list of activities visit our website at: fohvos.org

3. Check off activities you did on the Preserve:

- Hike Butterfly watch Photography
 Birdwatch Native Plant ID

4. Look for evidence of wildlife in the Preserve. Check any animal evidence you saw on the Preserves.

- Fur Bones or Shells Nest
 Feathers Tree Holes Tracks
 Scat Chewed Leaves Other:

6. Post a photo of yourself & passport at the entrance of a preserve on Facebook! Like us too!

